

Lower bounds on weak epsilon-net

Boris Bukh

Abstract

A set N is a weak ϵ -net for a set in $S \subset R^d$ if every convex set containing ϵS points of S contains a point of N . I will show a probabilistic lower bound on the size of the weak ϵ -nets, and speak about some open problems.